Tickets for the grand drawling are being sold rapidly. There was never a more equitable scheme presented to our citizens.

There was an increased attendance last night, in spite of the facts that the weather or was bad, and that a "hop" was given at the rink.

The Krights of Pythias say they are going to have "the biggest crowd of the season" to-morrow night. Come on; the ladies will be glad to see the "brave Krights."

To-night the merchants and business usen, with their families, are expected to swell the crowd and the receipts. The managers will wear their best amiles on the occasion.
